

We make your investigations count

About us

Fairlead Group offers an integrated system to manage the process of assigning and obtaining investigative services on behalf of the maritime industry, all with the aim of generating consistently credible, reliable and useful reports.

Why choose us

We provide high quality, relevant, and credible nationwide private investigation services combined with an investigation management platform.

For more information, call +1 862 339 4318, email: info@fairleadgroup.com or visit our website at www.fairleadgroup.com

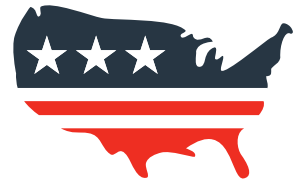

END-TO-END INVESTIGATION

The complete package, from instruction through to analysis – Fairlead finds the right expert for your case

FULL-SERVICE OFFERING

Complete investigation using open source investigation of the plaintiff's online profile and physical surveillance

NATIONAL COVERAGE

Over 200 investigators and a network of consultant professionals operating across the United States

CENTRALIZED PLATFORM

Bespoke online platform allows centralization of case information, with customizable dashboards and reports

SHOW AND SHARE

Collaborate and share information easily via the online platform with an audit trail and complete transparency

RELIABLE REPORTS

Multi-media investigation reports focused on specific allegations, and designed to be reliable during litigation